B. Information about the rights of data subjects

As a data subject you have the following rights with respect to the processing of your personal data:

- Right of access (Article 15 of the General Data Protection Regulation)
- Right to rectification (Article 16 of the General Data Protection Regulation)
- Right to erasure (“right to be forgotten”) (Article 17 of the General Data Protection Regulation)
- Right to restriction of processing (Article 18 of the General Data Protection Regulation)
- Right to data portability (Article 20 of the General Data Protection Regulation)
- Right to object (Article 21 of the General Data Protection Regulation)
- Right to withdraw consent (Article 7 paragraph 3 of the General Data Protection Regulation)
- Right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority (point (f) of Article 57 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation)

You may contact our Data Protection Officer (Section A.II.) for the purpose of exercising your rights.

In the following you will find information about your rights with respect to the processing of your personal data:

I. Right to access

As a data subject you have a right to obtain access and information under the conditions in accordance with Article 15 of the General Data Protection Regulation.

This means in particular that you have the right to obtain confirmation from us as to whether we are processing your personal data. If so, you also have the right to obtain access to the personal data and the information listed in Article 15 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation. This includes information regarding the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data that are being processed and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed (points (a), (b) and (c) of Article 15 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation).

You can find the full extent of your right to access and information in Article 15 of the General Data Protection Regulation, which can be accessed using the following link: <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

II. Right to rectification

As a data subject, you have the right to rectification under the conditions provided in Article 16 of the General Data Protection Regulation.

This means in particular that you have the right to receive from us without undue delay the rectification of inaccuracies in your personal data and completion of incomplete personal data.

You can find the full extent of your right to rectification in Article 16 of the General Data Protection Regulation, which can be accessed using the following link: <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

III. Right to erasure (“right to be forgotten”)

As a data subject, you have a right to erasure (“right to be forgotten”) under the conditions provided in Article 17 of the General Data Protection Regulation.

This means that you have the right to obtain from us the erasure of your personal data and we are obliged to erase your personal data without undue delay when one of the reasons listed in Article 17 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation applies. This can be the case, for example, if personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed (point (a) of Article 17 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation).

If we have made the personal data public and are obliged to erase it, we are also obliged, taking account of available technology and the cost of implementation, to take reasonable steps, including technical measures, to inform data controllers which are processing the personal data that you have requested the erasure by such data controllers of any links to, or copy or replication of those personal data (Article 17 paragraph 2 of the General Data Protection Regulation).

The right to erasure (“right to be forgotten”) does not apply if the processing is necessary for one of the reasons listed in Article 17 paragraph 3 of the General Data Protection Regulation. This can be the case, for example, if the processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims (points (a) and (e) of Article 17 paragraph 3 of the General Data Protection Regulation).

You can find the full extent of your right to erasure (“right to be forgotten”) in Article 17 of the General Data Protection Regulation, which can be accessed using the following link: <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

IV. Right to the restriction of processing

As a data subject, you have a right to restriction of processing under the conditions provided in Article 18 of the General Data Protection Regulation.

This means that you have the right to obtain from us the restriction of processing if one of the conditions provided in Article 18 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation applies. This can be the case, for example, if you contest the accuracy of the personal data. In such a case, the restriction of processing lasts for a period that enables us to verify the accuracy of the personal data (point (a) of Article 18 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation).

Restriction means that stored personal data are marked with the goal of restricting their future processing (Article 4 No. 3 of the General Data Protection Regulation).

You can find the full extent of your right to restriction of processing in Article 18 of the General Data Protection Regulation, which can be accessed using the following link: <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

V. Right to data portability

As a data subject, you have a right to data portability under the conditions provided in Article 20 of the General Data Protection Regulation.

This means that you generally have the right to receive your personal data with which you have provided us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and to transmit those data to another data controller without hindrance from us if the processing is based on consent pursuant to point (a) of Article 6 paragraph 1 or point (a) of Article 9 paragraph 2 of the General Data Protection Regulation or on a contract pursuant to point (b) of Article 6 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation and the processing is carried out by automated means (Article 20 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation).

You can find information as to whether an instance of processing is based on consent pursuant to point (a) of Article 6 paragraph 1 or point (a) of Article 9 paragraph 2 of the General Data Protection Regulation or on a contract pursuant to point (b) of Article 6 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation in the information regarding the legal basis of processing in Section C of this Data Privacy Policy.

In exercising your right to data portability, you also generally have the right to have your personal data transmitted directly from us to another data controller if technically feasible (Article 20 paragraph 2 of the General Data Protection Regulation).

You can find the full extent of your right data portability in Article 20 of the General Data Protection Regulation, which can be accessed using the following link: <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

VI. Right to object

As a data subject, you have a right to object under the conditions provided in Article 21 of the General Data Protection Regulation.

At the latest in our first communication with you, we expressly inform you of your right, as a data subject, to object.

More detailed information on this is given below:

1. Right to object on grounds relating to the particular situation of the data subject

As a data subject, you have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time to processing of your personal data which is based on point (e) or (f) of Article 6 paragraph 1, including profiling based on those provisions.

You can find information as to whether an instance of processing is based on point (e) or (f) of Article 6 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation in the information regarding the legal basis of processing in Section C of this Privacy Policy.

In the event of an objection relating to your particular situation, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

You can find the full extent of your right to objection in Article 21 of the General Data Protection Regulation, which can be accessed using the following link: <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

2. Right to object to direct marketing

Where your personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, you have the right to object at any time to processing of your personal data for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing.

You can find information as to whether and to what extent personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes in the information regarding the legal basis of processing in Section C of this Privacy Policy.

If you object to processing for direct marketing purposes, we no longer process your personal data for these purposes.

You can find the full extent of your right to objection in Article 21 of the General Data Protection Regulation, which can be accessed using the following link: <http://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>.

VII. Right to withdraw consent

Where an instance of processing is based on consent pursuant to point (a) of Article 6 paragraph 1 or point (a) of Article 9 paragraph 2 of the General Data Protection Regulation or on a contract pursuant to point (b) of Article 6 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation, as a data subject, you have the right, pursuant to Article 7 paragraph 3 of the General Data Protection Regulation, to withdraw your consent at any time. The withdrawal of your consent does not affect the legitimacy of the processing that occurred based on your consent until the withdrawal. We inform you of this before you grant your consent.

You can find information as to whether an instance of processing is based on consent pursuant to point (a) of Article 6 paragraph 1 or point (a) of Article 9 paragraph 2 of the General Data Protection Regulation in the information regarding the legal basis of processing in Section C of this Privacy Policy.

VIII. Right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority

As a data subject, you have a right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority under the conditions provided in point (f) of Article 57 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation.

C. Information about the processing of personal data

In connection with Customer Loyalty Programme different personal data are processed for different purposes. For example, we process your Customer Master Data which you provide to us when registering for the Customer Loyalty Programme.

You will find information below regarding the purposes and means of the processing of personal data, in particular on

- the personal data or categories of personal data that are processed,
- the purposes of the processing for which the personal data are intended,
- the legal basis for the processing and, where the processing is based on point (f) of Article 6 paragraph 1 of the General Data Protection Regulation, the legitimate interests pursued by us or by a third party,
- the recipients or categories of recipients of the personal data, if any,
- the period for which the personal data will be stored, or if that is not possible, the criteria used to determine that period.

Where we obtain your personal data from you as the data subject, you also find below information on whether the provision of personal data is a statutory or contractual requirement, or a requirement necessary to enter into a contract, as well as whether you are obliged to provide the personal data and of the possible consequences of failure to provide such data.

Where we do not obtain personal data from you as the data subject, you will also find below information on from which source the personal data originate, and if applicable, whether it came from publicly accessible sources.

Automated decision-making within the meaning of Article 22 of the General Data Protection Regulation does not take place.
